CHAMBER CHATTER

Summer and Christmas are fast approaching and The Double Bay Village is really starting to grow a vibrant buzz.
There is plenty happening across Double Bay - check out the latest Double Bay news.

Double Bay Street Festival 6 November

The countdown is on to the 2016 Double Bay Street Festival.

Sunday 6 November from 10am - 4pm you can experience the family favorites - Eat Street, Auto Alley, Goodstart Kidzone in Guilfoyle Park.

This year we are going local - with special attention being made to curate our Festival to showcase the gret shops in Double Bay. There will be extra spaces between stalls and a matching of stalls to businesses to enhance experience and business.

For thos businesses who would like to know more about booking a space or activating the street front give us a call on 9328 0616.

We are also pleased to announce that for the first time the Festival will include Kiaora Lane with music, stalls and a new Kiaora Lane Garden Bar.

A quick shoutout to our amazing Sponsors - LJ Hooker Double Bay, Spencer Travel, Magdalena

Photography and Goodstart Early Learning.

Double Bay

Bay Street - walkability trial

As part of our Safe-Smart-Share program a trial evening closure of part of Bay Street will be trialled during November.

So all can enjoy restaurants, cafes and local bars and have a safe place and speedy journey home, the Rose Bay Police will be managing a trial partial closure of Bay Street on Friday and Saturday nights from 9pm-3am. Special entry and exit points for taxis, Ubers and hire cars have been designated to ease the impact on our local community.
